Okay, I'm ready! Just tell me what you want translated, and I'll do my best to give you a d

Here's how the "Confidential" watermark concept will work:

*   I won't actually add a watermark to the text. I can't do that with text alone.

*   Instead, I'll indicate where a watermark should be. I'll probably use something like "[CONFIDENTIAL WATERMARK HERE]" or "[WAT

*   I'll also keep the tone of the translation appropriate for a document that would have a "Confidential" watermark. This means being extr

So, give me the text you want translated, and let's get started!
